Once every term the library produces a newsletter entitled ‘To Read or Not to Read’. This newsletter is put together with the assistance of the Student Librarians. It keeps students and staff up to date with what is happening in the library.

The newsletter is distributed as a digital copy to all staff for teachers to share with their classes. Hard copies are available from the library.

The link to the current and previous issues can be found on the Library page.